What did God say?

Saul and Ananias both heard God speak to them in this story.

Fill in the gaps in the speech bubbles with what God said to each man.

Saul, Saul, why do you persecute me? I am _____ whom you are persecuting, now _____ and go into the city, and you _____ what you must do.

Ananias! Go to the house of Judas... and ask for a man from _____ named Saul, for he is _____. In a vision he has seen a man named Ananias come and place his hands on him to _____ his sight.

How does God speak?

God doesn't always speak in an audible voice like he does in this story - can you think of some other ways we might hear God's voice?
